Placemaking Bolton

Canadian Institute of Transportation Engineers
Kelowna 2016

Eric Chan
June 7, 2016
Outline

• Background and context
• The Mission
• All Users’ Approach
• Lessons Learnt
• Conclusion
Components of the Mission

- Active transportation planning
- Transit planning
- Truck movements analyses and Origin-Destination survey
- Grade-separated rail crossings
- Traffic calming and safety measures
- Highway planning
- Downtown visualization
- Neighboring municipal transportation plans
- Land use and heritage plan coordination
- Planning policy review
- Public consultation
- Road widenings and extensions
- Bypass road construction
- Transit planning
- Context sensitive solution
- Transportation demand management on carpooling
- Truck movements analyses and Origin-Destination survey

Placemaking Bolton
Engagement and Consultation
Placemaking Bolton

A comprehensive multimodal mission collaborating with multi-disciplinary agencies
Placemaking Bolton
Placemaking Bolton
Placemaking Bolton
Placemaking Bolton
Lessons Learnt

• Identify champions at the beginning of a long journey

• Extra consultation
  Extra technicality
  Extra customization

• Be flexible to leverage unforeseen opportunities
Thank you

Eric Chan, P.Eng., PMP
Supervisor of Transportation Planning Engineering

10 Peel Centre Drive, Brampton
Ontario, Canada L6T 4B9
Phone: +1 905 791 7800 extension 4417
Fax: +1 905 791 1442
Email: eric.chan@peelregion.ca